

AMENDMENTS TO THE SPECIFICATION

The comma has been removed from paragraph [0019] of the specification as recommended by the Examiner with this specification amendment. The Applicants have discovered a duplication of the word “that” in the same paragraph that has also been removed. Please replace the existing paragraph [0019] with the following amended paragraph:

[0019] FIG. 5 illustrates an indication that ~~that~~ the e-mail 504 has been transferred into the newly created mailbox folder “IMAP” 520, as e-mail 524, associated with the second highlighted word. [[,]] The content of “IMAP” mailbox 520 may be shown in window 526, showing e-mail 524 transferred therein. In one embodiment, FIG. 5 also illustrates an indication that the same e-mail 504 had been previously transferred into mailbox folder “SpamWatch” 508 associated with the first highlighted word. The content of “SpamWatch” mailbox 508 may be shown in window 514, showing e-mail 522 transferred therein.
